Highly experienced in developing and implementing strategic real estate advice to his clients, Rob is a safe pair of hands to help advise both developers and occupiers.

With a focus on Oxfordshire's science and tech sector, Rob works with strategic campuses and business parks across the region, including the Harwell Campus, Westcott Venture Park and Oxford Technology Park. The retained transactions advisor to Oxford Sciences Innovation's portfolio of 80+ technology companies, Rob advises on property acquisitions and real estate strategy.

With a focus on office and laboratories as well as hybrid industrial buildings, Rob has the right experience to assist you in your property acquisition or disposal. He works collaboratively with his clients from the project's conception, right through until it's completed.

Rob is involved in projects that are delivering millions sq ft of new offices, laboratories, R&D and manufacturing buildings across the region.

Rob worked among the team who were awarded 'Best Agent' at the 2020 Oxford Property Festival. This award recognises how a personable and committed agent is always regarded as an asset within business space agency work, and Rob is no exception to the rule.
