With his never say die attitude, Gerald consistently brings a competitive and focussed stance into his work as Chief Financial Officer.

As a Member of the Institute of Accountants and a member of the Finance and Management Faculty, Gerald is highly experienced at combining a knowledge of finance and numbers and relating it back to how the firm liaises with clients.

Under his leadership, Bidwells has an exceptional level of strategic and operational financial management. Advising our partnerships on matters relating to banking, insurance, pensions and tax, Gerald plays an instrumental role within our firm.

Gerald enjoys interacting with others from a multitude of backgrounds and has established long standing relationships which have lasted decades.

This jack of all trades, master of none is a keen golfer. His love of the sport and his role strike the perfect balance between being precise and target driven, but also always looking for ways to improve.
