LIFE AND STYLE

Cambridgeshire is the perfect base for business and employees, with an enviable lifestyle, rich history and culture, and excellent transport links.

An internationally-renowned city where there is plenty to do, from punting the River Cam, to visiting the iconic colleges or grabbing some theatre or live music.

There are many dining options in the city, including two Michelin-starred restaurants; café society thrives here and the city over-flows with great pubs, from the traditional to the stylishly trendy, from riverside location to a cosy country inn.

It is an easy place to stay healthy and active – the city is known for cycling, and has a substantial rowing community on the Cam as well as the many health and fitness clubs to join.

The centre of Cambridge offers a number of great nightclubs and bars situated just off Market Square and a stylish selection of bars found along Market Passage, Market Hill, Trinity Street and Rose Crescent – live music is never far away.

The city is home to many museums, including the Fitzwilliam, with over half a million works of art, and the Scott Polar Research Institute Museum & Library.

In the summer months Cambridge is sizzling with al fresco performances of music in the parks and green spaces, with Cambridge Folk Festival the biggest draw. It is one of the premier music events in Europe, one of the longest running and most famous folk festivals in the world, attracting over ten thousand people year-on-year.
